Welcome to our Lake Country Chorus Christmas production Do You Hear What I Hear? Our choral group has been working tirelessly since August honing our skills and learning these carefully curated and often challenging pieces, but under the masterful leadership of our inspired and inspiring choral director Cat Williamson we've been in expert hands.

Putting on a show of this size is a team effort. Our Managing Director Melanie Schultz keeps us organized and on task. Our Music Director Bob Williamson organizes the many talented musicians and writes music charts when needed. As Artistic Director I have the joy of helping in the overall planning of each show. As a team Cat, Melanie, Bob, and I collaborate to develop themes for each show, select songs, arrange the order, write script, and determine costuming and set design. One of my favorite tasks is creating choreography for select songs such as "Jingle Alllll the Ways," a fun, lighthearted approach to the familiar tune "Jingle Bells." Also rewarding are our collaborative endeavors with other community talent. The Arts Barn students under the direction of Lora and Helen Garcia-Carreras and our young ballerina Kierstyn Gearheart from Southern Spice Dance Studio will enchant you. We love supporting these young performers and promoting the arts in our community.

We sincerely hope you enjoy our program tonight. As you listen, we invite you to reflect on our theme "Do You Hear What I Hear." What are the sounds of Christmas for you? The singing of familiar hymns, carolers' voices, choirs of angels? Joyful sounds of bells ringing, friends' and family's laughter, familiar stories being retold, children's squeals of delight?

Tonight's music is an invitation to prepare a space within ourselves for this season of sacred becoming, this birthing of divine light. The themes of hope, peace, love, and joy in tonight's music are living energies that nourish our soul and consequently nourish our community and world. May you carry them in your heart as you leave this evening.

Artistic Director, Lake Country Chorus
